Criteria for allocating places

- 1) EHC or statement of special educational need that names this school. Looked after child or previously looked after.
- 2) Sibling qualification
- 3) Faith Claim
- 4) Distance The local authority measures from the address point of your home to the school using a computerised mapping system called Cartology. Do not try and work this out yourselves by road! They can tell you your distance from any school.

- For this purpose "home" is the child's main place of residence.
- The child needs to be resident there when their name is added to the list.
- The LA can make background checks—they can withdraw a place if allocation is based on an address that is found not to be the child's "home" – even after the child has started school.
- We routinely request proof of address and birth certificates for all pupils before admitting them.
