

KS2 (Years 3-5) Pupil Voice on Reading

End of Spring Term 2022

Conversations were carried out in class groups with E. Warmington (previous teacher at St. Peter's). Questions included, "Do you enjoy reading?", "Who's your favourite author?", "When do you read?"

Y3

John, "I like the Masked Cleaning Ladies because it is so funny!"

Sianna, "I love Tom Gates' books because they are very different to other stories- they are just great!"

Isla, "I enjoy ERIC because it makes me happy and I can choose my own books."

Idris, "I love Roald Dahl because he makes funny words. JK Rowling writes adventurous stories."

Y4

Korben, "I enjoyed the story of the boy who adopts a penguin. It is creative and adventurous. I like the pictures and illustrations. I enjoy using the blurb to write ideas about what has happened."

Prajwal, "I like Tony Bradman because he writes books set in space, out of this world. Reading in a group is good because you can learn new vocabulary. I like it when my teacher reads to us as a class because they use different voices and ask us what different words mean."

Milo, "My favourite author is David Walliams because some of the characters have silly voices. The blurb helps me understand the story. My teacher reads every week and helps me identify different things."

Flynn, "I like the book Bad Guys by Aaron Blabey and I am excited to see the film. IT is an adventure story and they change into good characters. It is funny when a shark changes into a lamp!"

Robyn, "I like the Dogman books because they are comedy books and have lots of pictures. It's nice to read in a group because it is good to hear other people's opinions."

Y5

Sam B-C, "I enjoy reading non-fiction books because I like facts. I used to go to hospital so I wanted to learn more about ambulances."

Gaia, "I'm reading a book about a polar bear. It is teaching me about the food chain. I like books by Julia Donaldson like The Gruffalo and The Snail and the Whale."

Amelia, "I enjoy reading graphic novels because they're interesting and I like the way it is laid out. One of my favourite books is The Gift by Katherine White. The magic mirror shows you lots of different things, like dinosaurs and Egyptians. I like ERIC because you can just focus on one thing."

Safaa, "ERIC is my favourite lesson because I love reading diaries or murder mysteries. I enjoy trying to solve the mystery before the detective. I like books by Michelle Paver because they have complex storylines. Nancy Springer books are very interesting and I have watched the film version of Enola Holmes."

Ebony, "I like David Walliams' books because they have beautiful covers and lots of text to read. My favourite is Awful Auntie because it is funny. We have ERIC twice a day. I like reading in the morning because it is calming and you can learn new words."
